Michael Carbone

Michael Carbone is Senior Vice President for TD Bank Financial Group and Regional President for TD Bank's Metro Philadelphia Market, which comprises Eastern Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey, Coastal New Jersey and Delaware. He oversees all retail and commercial bank services and profit centers, consumer and commercial lending and government banking within the market.

Prior to taking the helm of TD Bank's Metro Philadelphia Market, Michael was Senior Vice President and Market Manager for the South Jersey and Delaware Market. He led that region's outstanding growth and was instrumental in building the largest market share for any bank operating in South Jersey.

A banker for twenty-three years, Michael started his career with First Fidelity Bank in 1986. He then moved on to work for United Jersey Bank South as their Assistant Vice President, where he held a variety of community lending positions.

Michael is active in community organizations, including the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation (2006 honoree) and Volunteers of America (Leadership Award – 2007). He is also a Risk Management Association member, and he was recently named the Walter Rand Institute Honoree of the Year for South Jersey.

As an active leader in the regional business community, Michael is a current Board Member of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Chamber's CEO Council for Growth, as well as a member of the CEO Access Network of Greater Philadelphia. Michael serves on the Finance Committee of Select Greater Philadelphia. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees for the Home Port Alliance for the Battleship New Jersey and the Board of Committee of Seventy. He recently joined the Executive Board for Penn Cardiovascular Institute and the Board of Directors of the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia. He is a former member of the Board of Trustees of the Greater Camden Partnership, the United Way of Camden County, American Cancer Society, Southern New Jersey Development Council Banking Committee and Cooperative Business Assistance Corp. Banking Committee and former Vice Chairman/Board Member of the Camden County College Foundation.

Michael is a graduate of Rowan University (formerly Glassboro State College), where he earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics, and he earned his Accreditation in Advanced Financial Analysis from Michigan University in 1987. He is married and has one son. His hobbies include golf and reading.
