

BOYS & GIRLS CLUB OF CAMDEN COUNTY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Bernadette A. Shanahan
856.966.9700, ext. 228
bshanahan@bandqccc.org

Local Youth and Members of the Boys & Girls Club of Camden County in MSNBC Special Presentation

I'Yanna Martinez and Tyrone King, members of the Boys & Girls Club of Camden County's Clubhouse in the Parkside neighborhood of Camden, NJ, will be in About Our Children, a live town hall event featuring Bill Cosby on September 20th, 7 p.m. (EST) on MSNBC. Earlier this month, I'Yanna, Tyrone and other local youth recorded their part of the presentation for this exciting event.

Howard University in Washington, DC will host the event which features a panel of experts and community leaders moderated by Independent Women's Forum president and MSNBC political analyst Michelle Bernard. Mr. Cosby, Ben Jealous, President of the NAACP, Terrie Williams, author of "Black Pain" and Randi Weingarten, president of the American Federation of Teachers will discuss pressing issues related to poverty in the United States including education and parenting.

A preview of the special is available online at: <http://www.msnbc.msn.com/id/21134540/vp/32760978#32760978>.

--

About the Boys & Girls Club of Camden County – Since beginning its work with local youth in 2001, the Boys & Girls Club of Camden County has continued to help local children and teens realize their full potential as productive, responsible and caring citizens – to BE GREAT. The Club serves nearly 4,000 youth at its two Clubhouses in Camden, NJ providing educational support, mentoring, access to technology, swimming sessions, and career exploration among its many programs and activities.

For more information about the Club and how you can get involved, please visit our website: <http://www.begreatcamden.org>.